

SENATE STILL IMPEDED WITH BITTER DEBATE

Begin Affirmative Action to Cancel Naval Oil Reserve Leases, However—Straw and
Coolidge Confer

REJECTS CHANGES

Three Amendments to Walsh Resolutions Voted Down—Deny Informed Denby Lease Legal by Judge Advocate

Washington, Jan. 30. — Affirmative action looking to the annulment of the naval oil leases was initiated today in the senate still was engulfed in a bitter debate over the Walsh amendment resolution.

Elia H. Straw, who, with Thomas W. Gregory, has been selected to prosecute the oil cases, conferred with President Coolidge and then began examination of evidence collected by the senate oil committee.

Although it failed to reach a final vote on the Walsh resolution, the senate rejected three amendments designed to modify its language and then launched again into further and bitter discussion which forced the measure over until tomorrow.

Senator McKellar, Democrat, Tennessee, interrupted debate long enough to introduce a proposal to bar any special government counsel in the oil cases any person who has been connected with any oil company, as counsel or otherwise.

Starting an oil inquiry of its own, the senate naval committee heard two witnesses, one of whom, J. L. Latimer, judge advocate general of the navy, testified that he had informed Secretary Denby in December, 1932, that it would be legal to enter a contract with the Denby interests for the construction of tankage at Pearl harbor, Hawaii, in conjunction with their lease of the California reserve.

Denby Would Testify Again.

Demands for the resignation of Secretary Denby for his part in the oil leases were renewed in the senate, while Senator Robinson, Arkansas, the Democratic leader, stated privately that he would press his resolution for Denby's resignation at the first opportunity.

The senate oil committee was told by the physicians that the present condition of former Secretary Fall made it inadvisable for him to appear at a public hearing, but the committee decided to appoint a medical commissioner of its own to examine him.

E. J. Doherty returned to Washington with a request that the committee hear him again and he probably will take the stand at the next session on Friday. He declined through his counsel to reveal the nature of the statement he intends to make.

The senate's appropriation committee reported favorably the house measure carrying $100,000 for the employment of counsel to prosecute the oil suits, but it added an amendment requiring confirmation of such counsel by the senate.

The McKellar proposal to bar as counsel persons who are or have been in any way affiliated with oil companies is designed as an amendment to the appropriation resolution. Its approval by the senate and acceptance by the house was forecast, but whether it would affect in any way the President's selection of counsel did not appear.

Discussion Bitterly Fought

Senator McKellar said it was not directed at either Mr. Gregory or Mr. Straw, as he had no information that either ever had acted as counsel for an oil company. He added, however, that he believed such a prohibition in the appropriation measure would be wise.

Some color to speculation as to the possibility of a hitch in the employment of Mr. Straw or Mr. Gregory was given, however, by a visit to the White House by Assistant Attorney General Holland who has been observing the senate inquiry. He conferred with Secretary Denby on the question of counsel and Mr. Denby afterward had a long conference with President Coolidge.

Running its course for the third successive day, senate debate was marked by bitter exchanges between Republicans and Democrats and culminated in a personal tilt between Chairman Leonard of the oil committee and Senator Walsh, Democrat, Missouri, who has had the leading role in the inquiry. Senator Walsh charged that he had received no cooperation from the chairman or other Republicans on the committee other than Archie Roosevelt's testimony to the fact that Leonard said he was content to let the country judge from the record of the hearings.

CORLISS GRIFFS FREED FROM JAIL

Man Who Told to Kidnap Berg-doll Surprised—Leaves for Stuttgart

(By the Associated Press)

Berlin, Jan. 30. — Corliss Griffis of Cincinnati, Ohio, imprisoned in Baden for his part in the attempted kidnapping of Grever Cleveland Bergdoll, the American draft evader, at Eberbach last summer, was released at 6 o'clock this evening and immediately left for Stuttgart. He was accompanied by American Vice Consul Magnusson.

Throughout the day the foreign office denied that final action with respect to the release of Griffis was imminent, and even contended that the situation remained unchanged in view of negotiations alleged to have been going on with Washington.

Action Surprises Griffis

Mosbach, Germany, Jan. 30. — Although aware that strong efforts were being made to obtain his pardon, Lieutenant Corliss Griffis was the most surprised man in this place when informed by his jailer late today that he could pack up his belongings and go whither he wished.

The American lieutenant lost no time in leaving the jail when he was informed that he had been pardoned and he succeeded in catching the evening train for Stuttgart. His departure took place so hurriedly that most of the villagers first learned of it after he was on his way. Vice Consul Magnusson accompanied him.

Karl Sperber and Faust Gagarin, who were implicated in the attempt to kidnap Bergdoll, are still in jail here.

OMAHA WILL STAY AT VERA CRUZ

Six Destroyers Also There—Probably Because of Possible
Fighting on Shore

Washington, Jan. 30. — The light cruiser Omaha and the six destroyers accompanying her were ordered by the navy department today to remain at Vera Cruz until further orders.

The ships had previously been instructed to remain at Vera Cruz until further orders.

Mr. Denby said the order directing the ships to remain at Vera Cruz temporarily was a precautionary measure without particular significance. He would not further explain the change in plans.

It is recalled, however, that the state department advised both from Vera Cruz and Mexico City, during the day, reported the capture of Exasperante by the federal troops and that the Obregon troops were closing in on Obregon. It appeared possible that the American warcraft had been instructed to remain in the vicinity of Vera Cruz because of the possibility of military operations between federal and rebel forces in that vicinity following the federal victory on the Vera Cruz line.

THREE KILLED; MANY INJURED IN RAIL WRECK

But Two of 11 Hurt Require Medical Attention—Engine
Turned Around

MUCH ROADBED TORN UP

Several Hundred Feet of Ties and Rails Destroyed—Communications Cut

Franklin, Pa., Jan. 30. — Three persons were killed and 11 injured, none seriously, when the Buffalo-Pittsburgh express of the Pennsylvania railroad, southbound, was derailed on a curve at the St. George flag station, 22 miles south of here today. Two coaches and a Pullman car were partly overturned, an express car was partly submerged in the Allegheny river while a combination baggage and mail car plowed into the hillside. The engine went over the bank and turned around at the edge of the river, the tender sinking below the surface.

The dead: James Hulings, engineer, Pittsburgh; W. R. Jenkins, fireman, Mercer county; H. B. Sharp, negro porter, Pittsburgh.

Hulings' body was found under the engine, badly crushed, while that of Jenkins was found 50 feet away. The porter was on his way through the Pullman car when part of the roof was ripped off as the car turned partly over. A portion of the roof struck his head, crushing the skull. Most of the injured passengers were riding in the Pullman car.

Relief at Some Within Hours.

The injuries of but two of them necessitated their removal to hospitals. The others continued their journey after receiving first aid treatment.

After leaving the rails, the train plowed along the roadbed for a distance of several hundred feet. Communication with St. George was interrupted for several hours when the derailed train broke the telegraph and telephone lines along the right of way. An emergency connection was made by the railroad company until the wires were repaired.

A relief train was made up at On City, carrying doctors and nurses and reached the scene within an hour after the wreck. Other doctors with first aid equipment joined the relief train here.

Tonight the Allegheny division road at On City issued a statement which said that the wreck was probably due to "excessive speed on a curve." A coroner's inquest is scheduled for tomorrow.

NEW TAX BILL WOULD LOWER 1923 LEVIES

Amount, While Not Determined,
May Reach as High as 25 Per Cent, Declares Chairman
Green of Committee

PART OF MEASURE

If Not Passed Before March 15,
Provision Will Be Made to Refund Excesses Collected on Installments

Washington, Jan. 30. — Income tax payers would receive a reduction in their 1923 taxes payable this year under provision voted today by Republican members of the house ways and means committee.

The amount of the reduction has not been determined, but Chairman Green, author of the proposal, said it might be as high as 25 per cent. It would apply to the taxes after they have been completed and to all personal income tax payers. Treasury experts estimated that a 25 per cent cut would mean a saving to tax payers of $225,000,000.

Mr. Green explained the reduction was aimed at immediate relief where as application of the rates in both the Mellon and Garner plans would begin on this year's taxes.

This action was the first taken on new income rates which the Republican members of the committee decided today to write themselves and put through in committee by a majority vote.

May Be Made Retroactive.

Representative Hull, Tennessee, a member of the committee and chairman of the Democratic national committee, announced tonight that Democratic members of the committee had intended to present a similar proposal but in the form of a joint resolution which could have been taken before the house and senate for action before March 15, when the first installments on last year's taxes are due.

EMMA DICKSON'S FATHER HELD FOR BRUTAL MURDER

Grandfather Said to Have Told
Detective Love Girl Reason

BODY CARRIED TO SWAMP

Brickboro High School Pupil First
Thought Shain by Auto
Companion

Millsville, N. J., Jan. 30. — Thompson Dickson, 15, father of Emma Dickson, Brickboro high school girl whose body was found in a swamp two miles from her home on September 22, last, tonight was formally charged with the murder of his daughter and was arrested at his home by County Detective Lore, who has been working on the case for the past four months.

The arrest, Detective Lore said, was made as the result of information which Benjamin Dickson, 58-year-old grandfather of the girl, revealed today. After lengthy questioning, Detective Lore said, the aged man, who lived with his son and granddaughter in a small house in Brickboro, broke down and admitted that his son had beaten the girl to death in their house on the night of September 13, and then carried the body to the swamp two miles away.

Thompson Dickson surrendered quietly when the officers appeared and was taken to Bridgeton, where he was locked up.

Body Found After Week's Search.

He refused to discuss any of the phases of the case.

Tonight's arrest is another step in the mysterious death of the girl which has kept this community in an uneasy turmoil for the past four months. Emma Dickson, 15, and pupil in high school, disappeared on September 13. For more than a week search was made for her by possees which beat every section of the surrounding country. On September 22 her body was found in a swamp near her home.

Examination by physicians revealed that the girl had been beaten to death, apparently by the hub cap of an automobile. Her clothing was torn and her body bruised. For some time it was thought that she had been taken on an automobile trip and then beaten to death by male companions, but nothing definite was established.

INTERNAL TAXES SHOW INCREASES

Coin Indicates Healthier and More Active Business Situation
in United States

Washington, Jan. 30. — Internal taxes brought more money to the government in the last six months of 1933 than in the corresponding period of 1932, showing in the opinion of treasury officials, a healthier and more active business generally, inasmuch as the domestic taxes are levied on scores of different industrial and commercial pursuits.

Statistics of receipts between July 1 and January 1, last, as made public tonight by the internal revenue bureau, showed payments to the government of $1,339,797,483 from all internal levies, including income and profits taxes. Receipts from the corresponding period in 1932 were $1,167,446,452.

N. Y. Penn., and Ill. Lead in Amount

Income and profits paid their usual large share of the total, $521,359,561 coming from that source, while in the last six months of 1932 this source yielded $476,786,120. There was an increase also in the "miscellaneous" taxes, covering all of the other assessments under the internal revenue act, the comparative receipts being $259,597,909 for the period ending last January 1 and $490,950,308 for the six months ending January 1, 1933.

New York, Pennsylvania and Illinois, in order, furnished the greatest amount of taxes. Collections from New York amounted to $244,153,387; Pennsylvania, $126,081,444; and Illinois, $104,981,193.

A. E. Rindolph, supervisor of technical training in the city schools, will address the Oregonia Club at their luncheon today on "A Physical Program for Oregonia."

There were about 75 children from the public schools present for the story hour yesterday afternoon at the Huntington Memorial Library. Miss Staples told three colorful stories, after which many remained for reading in the children's room.

The large plate glass front of the Dairy Lunch room on Broad street, broken by a passing hay bale last fall, was replaced yesterday afternoon. The glass measured approximately 7 by 10 feet, and is understood to represent an investment of $175.

County Treasurer James Hall, former Treasurer of G. Johnson and Attorney C. G. Tennant, all of Cooperstown, C. C. Enech of Unadilla and C. H. Merriam of Milford were in the city yesterday engaged in hearings at the office of Surrogate S. H. Close relative to inheritance taxes.

Judge Sheldon H. Close, City Engineer Frank M. Gurney and Fred M. Blum were in Albany yesterday in attendance at the hearing before Public Service Commissioner James Parsons on the application of Mr. Blum for a certificate to operate a bus line on Main and other streets in this city. There was no opposition and Commissioner Parsons reserved decision.

Main stopped the ice harvesting efforts of the Onondaga Ice & Fuel company at Onondaga lake early yesterday afternoon after but little more than a hundred tons had been taken from the water. The rain and warm weather has put the ice to any considerable extent, however, and operations will be recommenced this morning, providing it does not rain or has not frozen to an extent which would make the laying out of a new field necessary.

Stewart D. Evans of Birch street, Onondaga, and Wilber G. Sleight and Fred Alga of Cooperstown have been enlisted for the United States army by Sergeant Harry Diener of the local recruiting station. Evans will enter the coast artillery, sailing February 25 on the army transport Grant from the army base at Brooklyn. Sleight enlisted as a motor mechanic and truck driver and Alga as a motor mechanic. They will be sent to the Quartermaster corps at Camp Lewis, Tacoma, Washington.

Some fast basketball however and the locals will be compelled to do their best to win. There has been a good preliminary which will be called at 7:30 o'clock.

Following the principal game there will be dancing with music by Lynn Smith and his orchestra. It will be gratifying to the local players and encouraging as well to see a good crowd of rooters present. FOUR MORE IN LATEST CRASH

Crash Landing at West End Street

In one of the most unusual and terrible accidents which occurred in the city, four more persons were killed in a crash landing of a Ford touring car on Tuesday afternoon, on West End street, when a Ford touring car driven by Ernest Leterra, of 40 Valleyview street, this city, was overturned and a Ford truck owned and driven by Angelo Leterra, of Cortright, and each of these cars, on the rebound, managed to crash into another accepted automobile near at hand.

It happened that a brand new Buick sedan was standing at the entrance to the Elks club, and a service station, operated by C. J. Leterra, at 515 Main street, in front of Clayton Brown's home and door, a Chevrolet sedan, also belonging to Mr. Leterra, was parked at the curb. Leterra was jumping to Main street from Rose avenue, when Leterra came along, and whether or not these cars actually hit each other eye witnesses of the accident were unable to say. A missing hub cap from the left front wheel of the truck would indicate that they did. In any event Leterra swung violently around to the right, and in doing so climbed the curb, and crashed into the rear of the Rickenbacker, forcing it through the closed doors just ahead, and then, in some peculiar manner, pulling it out again, and jamming it sideways into a gasoline pump.

In the meanwhile Leterra and the Ford car were performing evolutions on the slippery pavement, finally skidding sideways and backwards for 10 feet or more, and crashing into the Chevrolet, taking off a rear wheel. Incidentally it was only the presence of the Chevrolet car that saved Leterra from landing bottom side up in a brook which flows under Main street at this point, and which up to the present time the city fathers have not seen fit to protect with any kind of a railing or fence. It is a real danger spot at the present time.

Perhaps the most remarkable feature of the whole accident was the manner in which the new Rickenbacker sedan, after being jammed through a closed and fastened door and breaking off a 2 by 6 door stanchion, escaped with practically insignificant damage. The Ford truck had its frame warped, its radiator bent in, and its cab loosened from the body. The other two cars also sustained considerable damage. Fortunately no one was hurt, although Leterra had his wife and several children with him in the crash.

Special Train to Boston.

Yesterday afternoon a train of 43 new gondola cars of the Boston & Maine railroad, each loaded with three new Buick automobiles, under canvas covers, passed through the city on the way to Boston, the automobiles for delivery, and the gondola cars to be put into service by the company to which they were just being delivered.

The train was a rare sight in its new coat of paint in its entirety, and with the cars running in numbered succession. The train left Binghamton at 5 o'clock after being delivered to the D. & H. company, arriving here at about 5 o'clock with engine #74, and Conductor Patrick P. Neylan.

How the locomotive was replaced by engine #25 and #28, in charge of Engineer Sobers, and at 5:15 the train proceeded on its way.

A WONDERFUL DANCE

Food Whitman's Champagne Cocktail

A complete success in every way was the dance held last evening at the state assembly by the Onondaga Playroom association, sponsored from the point of view of the dancers, who spent the evening to be the last word in dance harmony, and successful from the point of view of the association, which cleared several hundred dollars. The expense were unusually heavy but the attendance was unusually large.

That the work of the orchestra made a tremendous impression upon the crowd was evident from the remarks of the dancers as they came off the floor. The time was superb and rhythm fairly rolled from the orchestra platform in waves which caught the dancers up and carried them on its surface. The ten musical chairs attempted to singing or some of the stunts, a feature missed by some but they demonstrated their artistry and their ability to play straight dance music in impeccable fashion.

The crowd was very large, the dance floor being filled to capacity and the balcony packed with spectators. Practically every vicinity town was represented by good sized delegations.

It was impossible to determine the evening just how much money was made but it is thought that the association is several hundred dollars richer as the result of the venture. And apart from the question of profit those in charge of the dance have the satisfaction of knowing that they gave those who purchased tickets just what they said they would, wonderful music and a wonderful time.

AWARDED COMMISSION

Louis B. Capron Named as Second Lieutenant in Air Service.

Louis B. Capron of this city has been awarded a commission as second lieutenant in the air service, being one of a number of residents of this section so honored in the officers reserve corps of the United States.
